DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Respected Brothers and Sisters,

Since 1991, Human Appeal Australia (HAA) has been changing the lives of millions of people all over the world. Our work spans across 39 locations worldwide as we focus on responding diligently to emergencies and improving the livelihoods of many. As we know, the past year has been particularly challenging and we continue utilising all resources to counter the growing global humanitarian crises.

With that, we are committed to being a pillar of support to our local Australian community by implementing projects that strengthen and empower us into a brighter tomorrow.

At HAA, we value the youth and recognise them as the foundation of our future. Our work in the local community features a variety of programs committed to promoting personal growth, academic progression and establishing networks. These initiatives, such as our Leadership Alumni Program, help cultivate a positive ripple effect that impacts not only those involved but also the extended communities over time.

As the next round of Year 12 students prepare to conclude their HSC journey, I present to you with great anticipation the 18th Annual 'Year 12 Muslim High Achievers Awards'. This significant event aims to recognise and reward Muslim students from all over Australia who have attained exceptional ATAR scores of 90 and above. Our focus is to shine a light on their outstanding efforts and foster a sense of dedication within upcoming generations.

This memorable initiative would not attain such success without the generosity of our esteemed sponsors. As such, I kindly extend to you the opportunity to join hands with us in supporting this incredible project and helping us accentuate the hard work of our youth.

Not only does this project provide an outstanding incentive for upcoming generations, it will also present you with a valuable opportunity to enhance recognition and broaden the network of your organisation.

Within this booklet, we have included information detailing the course of the event, sponsorship packages, and key dates amongst other things.

I sincerely request your thoughtful consideration for this partnership and look forward to working together.

Kind regards,

Bashar Al Jamal
Director

Awards

A look into the 17th Annual Human Appeal Australia Year 12 Muslim Achievement Awards

The Annual HAA Muslim High Achievement Awards is a program aimed to recognise and reward Muslim students from all over Australia who have demonstrated outstanding results in their Year 12 academic studies. This year, the 17th Annual High Achievers Awards celebrated the spectacular efforts of 538 Muslim students across the country. Recipients were given certificates and gifted the latest iPad as a continuous effort to promote positivity and encourage dedication amongst youth within their academic journeys.

The awards kicked off on the 23rd of February in Canberra, hosted at the Islamic School of Canberra. The memorable night, which commenced with an enriching recitation of the Quran, celebrated eight incredible students and included a special performance by Preacher Moss visiting from the United States, who attended all of this year's high achiever award events across the country.

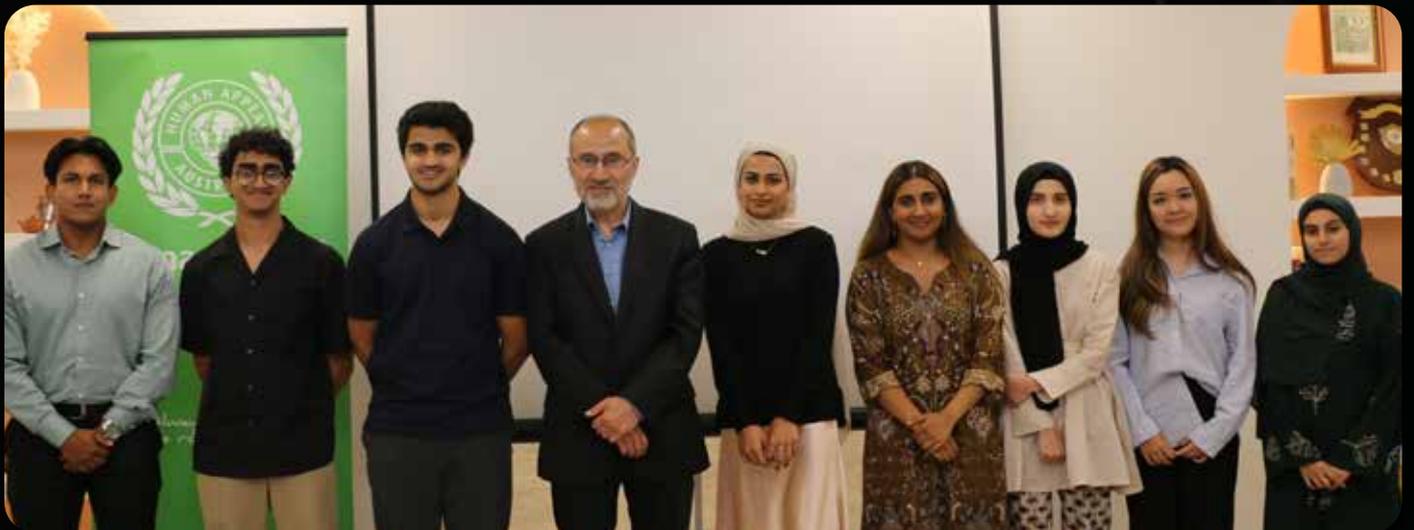

The following day, 17 high achieving students in Adelaide, South Australia, had their moment in the spotlight as they celebrated their remarkable accomplishments. Following a spiritual Quran recitation, the State Director Ali Kadir delivered a warm welcoming speech. Sh. Mohammed El-Sayed as well as member of the legislative council, Mira El Dinnawi, were amongst the speakers who emphasised the vital role of education and ethics of success. On the 25th of February, the event in Perth, Western Australia, saw an impressive 43 students rewarded for their incredible efforts. The night's schedule mirrored that of other cities, with an introduction carried out by Issam Chaouk, Director of Projects at HAA. Abdullah Khan, Executive Principal at the Australian Islamic College and Sh. Mohammed Shakeeb both gave valuable insights on the plight of pursuing excellence and the importance of education in Islam.

The Queensland awards was held on Friday 1st March in Brisbane. It was a full house event honouring 44 high achievers from all over the state. Key speaker on the night was Dr Salih Ibn Muhammed – General Secretary of Australian Islamic Medical Association (AIMA) sharing his journey, academic achievements and contributions to the community.

Sh. Yahya Adel Ibrahim from Perth also shared some words of wisdom in which gave students a more insightful perspective on their lives and human development.

Down in Victoria on March 2nd, the awards was held in Melbourne, where the ceremony opened with a Quran recitation by Osama Akkad – one of the astounding 154 award recipients. This was followed by various speeches delivered by guest speakers including Mohamed Mohideen, the Victorian Multicultural Commissioner and Adel Salman, President of the Islamic Council of Victoria, amongst others.

The final event for the 17th Annual Muslim High Achievers Awards was held in Sydney, New South Wales on the 3rd of March which celebrated the largest group of students in the country this year. The event honoured an astonishing 272 students who reached excellence in the previous academic year. Following a Quran recitation, a warm welcome was addressed to the guests by Human Appeal Australia's Director, Bashar Al-Jamal. Notable guests included the honourable MP Jihad Dib who delivered a word to the attendees and participated in handing out awards.

Canterbury-Bankstown Mayor Bilal Hayek was also present to congratulate and honour the high achievers along with their families. The event had come to an end with another special performance from guest Preacher Moss to add to the already joyful atmosphere, sealing the awards season for this year. Part of the mission at HAA is to showcase the successes and achievements of local communities and particularly the youth. It is crucial that there is a continued effort to push for dedication and promote the upholding of values and ethics within the community.

HAA congratulates the incredible scores of students this year from all over the country who have shown exceptional efforts in their academic journeys and we wish them all the best on their future endeavors.
